

6 September 1951

Mr. Theodore Tannenwald, Jr.
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Ted:

STAT As I indicated in my telephone conversation yesterday, CIA has no further interest at this time in [redacted] We have talked to him extensively and feel there is nothing further that we can do with him.

STAT With regard to Senator McMahon's reply to [redacted]
STAT I think he should indicate that insofar as CIA at least is concerned, the matters raised by Mr. [redacted]
STAT [redacted] have been brought to the attention of the appropriate persons in the Agency who have the power to make the necessary decisions. They have determined that there is nothing that they should do at this time in connection with [redacted] proposals and see nothing in these proposals which would merit their further discussion either with Secretary Acheson or the President.

STAT As you requested, I am returning [redacted] correspondence to you.

Sincerely yours,

Walter L. Pforzheimer
Legislative Counsel

Enclosure

[redacted]

Admin. Files W/Basic Chief, OO/C

[redacted] - 2 ✓

STAT

STAT